ORDERING REPRINTS OF PUBLISHED ARTICLES

We welcome IR/PR professionals or organizational representatives to order reprints for distribution in investor kits, for conferences, and for recruiting - or any other purpose where the credibility of BioCentury articles is invaluable.

Our Reprints Service can provide the article you designate in a professional PDF layout that includes the masthead of the publication in which it was published. To order reprints, please complete and return the Reprint/Permission Order form.

All uses of material from any of our publications are covered by our copyrights. Third parties interested in obtaining permission to reproduce articles, figures or tables from any of our publications should email a permission request or query to BioCentury Subscriber Services.
